

Common Surgeries Performed

All ophthalmic surgeries are performed at the main surgery center in Little Falls, NJ. This facility houses state of the art anesthetic and surgical equipment. We are currently the only veterinary ophthalmologists in the world using the Whitestar elite phacoemulsification unit for cataract removal.

- Lens surgery
  - Cataract removal by phacoemulsification with foldable intraocular lens implantation
  - Lens luxation surgery
- Glaucoma surgery
  - Laser surgery with anterior chamber shunt/filtering procedures
  - Cryosurgery
  - Pharmacological ciliary body ablation
- Eyelid surgery
  - Entropion/ectropion
  - Distichia removal
  - En bloc tumor removal or cryosurgical removal of tumors
  - Ectopic cilia removal
  - Reconstructive blepharoplasty
- Corneal surgery (Corneal and conjunctival grafts)
  - Corneal and conjunctival grafts
  - Superficial keratectomy
  - Grid keratotomy
  - Placement of corneal adhesive
- Repair of prolapsed glands of the third eyelid (cherry eye surgery)
- Parotid duct transposition
- Laser retinopexy surgery
- Laser intraocular tumor removal
- Laser surgery for epibulbar melanoma
- Laser surgery for iris cysts
- Orbital surgery
- Cosmetic intraocular prosthesis placement
- Eye removal
- Orbital prosthesis placement